

Overview summary

		Renewables	Energy efficiency	Overarching
ELECTRICITY	GENERAL			G No recent policy developments.
	SUPPLY	D • PV feed-in tariff has been reduced and is subject to continuous changes.	E No recent policy developments.	E • Stop to the nuclear plans but no clear new energy and climate strategy.
INDUSTRY	INDUSTRY	F No recent policy developments.	E • Some small positive update to the white certificates mechanism but no significant changes.	E • Energy efficiency plan in compliance with Directive 32/06 has been approved. Strategy is extended to 2020. Target for 2016 is still 9.6%.
	BUILDINGS	E • The Renewable Decree n.28/2011 introduces obligations for new buildings and major renovations from June 2012 onwards.	G • Decree n.28, introduces obligation of energy certificate during building transactions. • 55% tax rebates for energy efficiency measures has been extended to 2011.	F No recent policy developments.
TRANSPORT	TRANSPORT	F • New incentives for electric cars approved and starting end of 2011, beginning of 2012.	F • Incentives for the purchasing of more ecological cars have not been extended to 2011. • Benefits for fuel switch of circulating vehicles have been created.	E • Law proposals, such as one introducing incentives for electric vehicles, but no actual new measures were introduced yet.
	FORESTRY AGRICULTURE	AGRICULTURE
FORESTRY				D No recent policy developments.

Letters indicate last year's score:

Arrows indicate the recent policy trend:

The size of the icons indicates the relative importance of the sector: small, medium or large.